4. CUSTOMER AND PERSONAL DATA

4.1) Customer Data. Customer is and shall remain the owner of the Customer Data and the rights attached thereto. Customer represents and warrants that it has all necessary rights and consents in and to the Customer Data such that its use hereunder is lawful and does not violate the rights of any third party, including intellectual property and privacy rights.

5.3) Suspension for Late Payments. Without prejudice to its other rights and remedies, Mirakl may suspend Customer and its Authorized Users' access to the Cloud Services for non-payment of undisputed invoices or amounts in accordance with the applicable Order and this Agreement. 7.1) Cloud Services Warranty. Mirakl will provide the Cloud Service in all material respects in accordance with the Agreement and the Documentation. If Mirakl fails to comply with this commitment, Customer may request that Mirakl modify the deficient Cloud Service in a compliant manner. - (ii) Indemnify Customer against all damages finally awarded against Customer (or the amount of any settlement Mirakl enters into) with respect to these claims.

If a Cloud Service is or, in Mirakl's reasonable opinion, may be subject to a legal action or claim, Mirakl may at its discretion and expense (a) obtain the right to permit Customer to continue to use the Cloud Services; (b) modify the relevant Cloud Service so that it is non-infringing while remaining substantially functionally equivalent; or (c) if Mirakl finds that Section 8.1(a) and (b) are not commercially reasonable, Mirakl may terminate the Agreement upon written notice and refund Subscription Fees (if any) which were prepaid by Customer for its subscription to the Cloud Services for the period postdating termination of the Agreement.

Mirakl's obligations under this section will not apply if the legal action or claim results from (A) the combination, operation, or use of the affected Cloud Services with other products, services, or materials not provided by Mirakl; (B) the affected Cloud Service is used otherwise than in compliance with the Agreement, Mirakl Resources, or the Documentation; or (C) if the affected Cloud Service is provided for no fee (including beta program and free trial product).

The Indemnified Party may participate in the defense, at its own expense. The Indemnifying Party will have sole control of the defense and potential settlement, provided that any such settlement will not include a financial or specific performance obligation on, or constitute an admission of liability by the Indemnified Party.

9. LIABILITY

9.1) Limitation of Liability. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the total liability of Mirakl (and its Affiliates, officers, employees, agents, and subcontractors) for any and all causes of action arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be limited to total amount of Subscription Fees (excluding taxes) paid for the applicable Cloud Service associated with the damages during the six (6) months prior to the first event out of which the liability arose.

9.4) Liability and Third Parties. Mirakl only makes a contractual commitment to Customer and makes no commitments or guarantees of any kind to any third party under this Agreement. The access to and use of the Cloud Services by a third party or the direct or indirect use by a third party of all or part of the Cloud Services shall be Customer's exclusive liability. It is therefore Customer's exclusive responsibility to manage its risks with respect to third parties.

9.5) Limitation of Time to File Claims. Customer must initiate a cause of action for any claim(s) relating to the Agreement and its subject matter within one (1) year from the date when Customer knew, or should have known after reasonable investigation, of the facts giving rise to the claim(s).
