GENERAL TERMS OF USE FOR MIRAKL CLOUD SERVICES

1. PURPOSE

These General Terms of Use govern Customer's access to, and use of the Mirakl Cloud Services identified in an Order Form.

2. CLOUD SERVICES

2.1) Right to Access and Use. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement, Mirakl grants Customer a non-sublicensable, non-exclusive, and non-transferable right to access and use the Cloud Services, Mirakl Resources, and the Documentation, solely for Customer's internal business operations during the Term of the Agreement.

2.2) Authorized Users. Customer may permit Authorized Users to access and use the Cloud Services, provided that Customer remains responsible for any acts, omissions, and breaches of the Agreement by an Authorized User.

2.3) Services Providers. Subject to Mirakl's prior written consent (e-mail permitted), Customer may allow services providers to access the Cloud Services, Mirakl Resources, and/or the Documentation solely to support Customer with the implementation, configuration, or management of Customer's access to and use of the Cloud Services (each, a "Services Provider"), provided that:

- (i) Customer remains responsible for any acts, omissions, and breaches of the Agreement by Services Providers. It is recommended that Customer and Services Providers have in place a written agreement that requires the Services Providers' compliance with Customer's obligations under the Agreement including, without limitation, non-disclosure of Mirakl's Confidential Information and protection of Mirakl's intellectual property rights.
- (ii) Under no circumstances may Services Providers access and use the Cloud Services, Mirakl Resources, and/or the Documentation to operate or provide services to any third party, in connection with such Services Providers' own business operations, or for any purpose other than the purposes authorized under the Agreement.
- (iii) Customer shall indemnify Mirakl, its Affiliates, officers, employees, agents, and subcontractors from and against all claims, liabilities, losses, damages, and costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees) suffered by or awarded against Mirakl or its Affiliates, officers, employees, agents, and subcontractors as a result of any act or omission by a Services Provider.

Mirakl reserves the right to suspend any Services Provider's access to the Cloud Services, Mirakl Resources, and/or the Documentation if Mirakl reasonably suspects any unauthorized access to or use of the Cloud Services, Mirakl Resources, and/or the Documentation by such Services Provider.

2.4) Cloud Services Usage Policy. Customer warrants that it will use, and will ensure that all Authorized Users use, the Cloud Services in accordance with the Agreement and all laws and regulations applicable to Customer and to the Customer Data. Customer shall comply with the Documentation and the Agreement and acknowledges that any use of the Cloud Services that does not comply with the Documentation and/or the terms of the Agreement may jeopardize the availability, security, and performance of the Cloud Services. Customer shall maintain appropriate security standards for its Authorized Users' use of the Cloud Services and shall not interfere with the Cloud Services' operation and security. Customer shall not perform or authorize penetration testing of the Cloud Services. Customer shall not attempt to circumvent the rules and restrictions governing the use of the Cloud Services, including but not limited to attempting to manipulate, evade, or reduce the amounts owed to Mirakl by Customer under the Agreement.

2.5) Third-Party Services. The Cloud Services may include integrations with services made available by third parties (other than Mirakl SAS or its Affiliates) that are accessible through the Cloud Services and are subject to those third parties' terms and conditions. These third-party services are not part of the Cloud Services, and the Agreement does not apply to them. Mirakl is not responsible for the content, quality, and/or provision of those third-party services.

3. MIRAKL'S OBLIGATIONS

3.1) Provision of the Cloud Services. Mirakl agrees to make the Cloud Services available to Customer in accordance with the Agreement and all laws and regulations applicable to Mirakl's provision of the Cloud Services.

3.2) Support & Availability. Mirakl will make the Mirakl support service available to Customer as set forth in the applicable schedule of the Agreement. Mirakl will maintain an average monthly availability service level for the applicable Cloud Services in accordance with such schedule. The remedies stated therein, including the issuance of applicable service credits, are final and constitute Customer's sole and exclusive remedy and Mirakl's sole and exclusive liability for any failure by Mirakl to meet such availability service level.

3.3) Security. Mirakl will apply and maintain appropriate technical and organizational security measures for the Cloud Services, detailed in Mirakl's Trust Center or, as applicable, in a schedule to the Agreement. Mirakl will not reduce the overall level of security when updating its technical and organizational security measures. Customer's access to the Cloud Services requires the use of a login and password or API key. Except as otherwise authorized herein, Customer shall not communicate the information enabling access to the Cloud Services (API key, login, password) to third parties. Any actions performed using the API key or the login and associated password shall be deemed to have been performed by Customer.

4. CUSTOMER AND PERSONAL DATA

4.1) Customer Data. As between Mirakl and Customer, Customer is and shall remain the owner of the Customer Data and the rights attached thereto. Customer represents and warrants that it has all necessary rights and consents in and to the Customer Data such that use of the Customer Data for the purposes hereunder is lawful and will not violate the rights of any third party, including, but not limited to, intellectual property and privacy rights.

4.2) Personal Data. Customer represents and warrants that the personal data contained in the Customer Data is collected and processed in accordance with the laws and regulations applicable to Customer and to such personal data. As required by law or as otherwise agreed by the Parties, the Parties' data protection rights and obligations may be stipulated in a data processing agreement set forth as a schedule to the Agreement.

4.3) Customer Data Backup. Customer Data is kept by Mirakl during the Term of the Agreement and is periodically backed up by Mirakl for the sole purpose of providing the Cloud Services and, if necessary, their timely recovery. Customer shall be responsible for backing up its data, files, programs, documentation, and information of any kind that it may have made available to Mirakl.

4.4) Returning and/or Deleting Customer Data. Upon termination or expiration of the Agreement, and subject to Customer's written request, Mirakl shall return and/or delete the Customer Data to Customer in accordance with Section 6.3.

5. FINANCIAL TERMS

5.1) Prices and Payment. Customer shall pay all amounts due under the Agreement in accordance with the provisions of the applicable Order Form. Except as provided in Section 6.2, 7.1, and 8.1, payments made by Customer are non-refundable, and Customer may not withhold, deduct, or offset any amounts owed to Mirakl. If any costs are necessary to collect amounts due under the Agreement, Customer will reimburse Mirakl for such costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees. All invoices will be issued in accordance with the applicable Order Form, regardless of the issuance of a purchase order by Customer. Purchase orders, communications, and other documents issued by Customer for its internal administrative procedures shall not add to or alter the Agreement.

5.2) Fees Dispute Resolution. If Customer reasonably believes, in good faith, that Mirakl has incorrectly billed Customer, Customer must contact Mirakl in writing within thirty (30) days of the invoice date, specifying the error. Mirakl and Customer will then meet to resolve the matter within thirty (30) days of Customer's notice. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Customer will not be released from its obligation to pay all amounts not subject to a reasonable, good-faith dispute, in accordance with Section 5.1.

5.3) Suspension for Late Payments. Without prejudice to its other rights and remedies, Mirakl may suspend Customer and its Authorized Users' access to the Cloud Services due to the non-payment of undisputed invoices or amounts in accordance with the applicable Order Form and the Agreement, if such payment failure has not been cured within fourteen (14) days of Mirakl's notice. Such suspension will not reduce the fees owed by Customer under any Order Form. In addition, Mirakl may also terminate the Agreement in accordance with Section 6.2 (i) below should Customer fail to pay the fees due under the Agreement within thirty (30) days of Mirakl's notice.

6. TERM; TERMINATION

6.1) Term and Renewal. The Agreement shall take effect on the Order Form's effective date and will remain in force for so long as an Order Form remains in force, including any renewals thereof.

6.2) Termination.

- (i) Termination for Breach. Either Party may terminate the Agreement upon written notice if the other Party materially breaches the Agreement and such breach (i) has not been cured within thirty (30) days of the breaching Party's receipt of notice of the breach; or (ii) is incapable of cure.
- (ii) Termination and Fees. Where the Agreement is terminated due to Mirakl's breach under this Section 6.2, Mirakl will refund to Customer, on a pro rata basis, any Subscription Fees paid by Customer to Mirakl for the Cloud Services for the period postdating such termination. Where the Agreement is terminated due to Customer's breach under this Section 6.2, all fees committed by Customer that it has not yet paid will become immediately due and payable and will be invoiced accordingly by Mirakl.

6.3) Effect of Termination. Upon termination or expiration of the Agreement:

- (i) Mirakl shall cease to provide the Cloud Services;
- (ii) Customer shall no longer have the right to access and use the Cloud Services; and
- (iii) (a) each Party shall return and/or delete all Confidential Information provided by the other Party during the Term of the Agreement within ninety (90) days from the date of termination or expiration of the Agreement.

(b) If requested by Customer within thirty (30) days from the date of termination or expiration, Mirakl shall return the Customer Data to Customer in an intelligible form within thirty (30) days of Customer's request. Notwithstanding such request, Customer hereby instructs Mirakl to delete the Customer Data ninety (90) days after termination or expiration of the Agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Party may retain the other Party's Confidential Information (and, for Mirakl, the Customer Data) that has been archived in accordance with such Party's record-keeping and backup procedures, so long as no further use is made of such information and the confidentiality obligations of the Agreement shall continue to apply to any such retained Confidential Information and Customer Data.

(iv) Sections 4.4, 5, 6.3, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13 will survive the expiration or termination of the Agreement.

7. WARRANTIES

7.1) Cloud Services Warranty. Mirakl will provide the Cloud Services in all material respects in accordance with the Agreement and the Documentation. Should Mirakl fail to comply with this commitment, Customer may request that Mirakl correct the affected Cloud Service's deficiency. If Mirakl is unable to do so, Customer may then request, within three (3) months of Mirakl's failure to correct the deficiency, as its sole and exclusive remedy, that Customer's subscription to the deficient Cloud Service be terminated and that Customer be refunded, on a pro rata basis, any Subscription Fees paid for the deficient Cloud Service for the period postdating such termination.

7.2) Exclusions. Mirakl's obligations under this section do not apply (i) if the impacted Cloud Service has not been used in accordance with the Agreement and/or the Documentation; (ii) if the impacted Cloud Service's non-compliance is caused by Customer or by any products or services not provided by Mirakl; or (iii) if the impacted Cloud Service is provided free of charge (including beta programs and free trial products).

7.3) DISCLAIMER. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THE AGREEMENT, AND TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, MIRAKL PROVIDES THE CLOUD SERVICES AND ANY OTHER SERVICES PROVIDED UNDER THE AGREEMENT ON AN “AS-IS” AND “AS AVAILABLE” BASIS AND MIRAKL, ITS AFFILIATES, OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, EMPLOYEES, AND AGENTS DISCLAIM ANY AND ALL EXPRESS, IMPLIED, OR STATUTORY WARRANTIES, INCLUDING REPRESENTATIONS, GUARANTEES, OR WARRANTIES OF SATISFACTORY QUALITY, MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, OR ACCURACY. MIRAKL ALSO EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ANY WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION THAT THE CLOUD SERVICES WILL OPERATE SECURELY, CONTINUOUSLY, OR WITHOUT ERRORS, AND MAKES NO REPRESENTATION OR PROMISE THAT THE CLOUD SERVICES WILL MEET THE NEEDS OF CUSTOMER OR ANY THIRD PARTY OR THAT ANY FUTURE FEATURE WILL BE MADE AVAILABLE, EVEN IF IT IS INCLUDED IN ANY OF MIRAKL’S COMMUNICATIONS OR IN ITS ROADMAP, WHICH CUSTOMER ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES TO.

8. THIRD-PARTY CLAIMS

8.1) Claims Brought Against Customer. Subject to the provisions of this section, Mirakl agrees to:

- (i) defend Customer against any legal action or claim brought against Customer by a third party alleging that Customer’s use of the Cloud Services in accordance with the Agreement infringes such third party’s patent, trademark, or copyright; and
- (ii) indemnify Customer against all damages finally awarded against Customer (or the amount of any settlement Mirakl enters into) with respect to these legal actions or claims.

If a Cloud Service is or, in Mirakl’s reasonable opinion, may be subject to a legal action or claim, Mirakl may at its discretion and expense:

- a) secure the necessary rights to allow Customer to continue using that Cloud Service;
- b) modify the Cloud Service so as to be non-infringing while remaining substantially functionally equivalent; or
- c) if Mirakl finds that options (a) and (b) are not commercially practicable, Mirakl may terminate the affected Cloud Service’s subscription upon written notice and refund, on a pro rata basis, any Subscription Fees paid by Customer for such Cloud Service for the period postdating such termination.

Mirakl’s obligations under this section will not apply under circumstances where:

- A. the legal action or claim results from the combination, operation, or use of the affected Cloud Service with other products, services, or materials not provided by Mirakl;
- B. the affected Cloud Service was not used in compliance with the Agreement, Mirakl Resources, or the Documentation; or
- C. the affected Cloud Service was provided free of charge (including, but not limited to, beta programs and free trial products).

The provisions of this section state the sole, exclusive, and entire liability of Mirakl, its Affiliates, licensors, and subcontractors to Customer, and is Customer’s sole remedy with respect to covered third-party claims alleging infringement or misappropriation of third-party intellectual property rights.

8.2) Claims Brought Against Mirakl. Customer will:

- (i) defend Mirakl, its Affiliates, officers, employees, agents, and subcontractors, against any legal action or claim brought against any of them by any third party related to the Customer Data; and
- (ii) indemnify Mirakl, its Affiliates, officers, employees, agents, and subcontractors from and against all liabilities, losses, damages, and costs (including reasonable attorneys’ fees) incurred by or awarded against any of them with respect to these legal actions or claims.

8.3) Applicable Procedure. The Party against whom a third-party claim is brought (the “Indemnified Party”) will (i) promptly notify the other Party (the “Indemnifying Party”) in writing of the claim; and (ii) reasonably cooperate and provide the Indemnifying Party with all information and assistance reasonably necessary for the defense. The Indemnified Party may participate in the defense, at its own expense. The Indemnifying Party will have sole control over the defense and potential settlement of the claim, provided that any such settlement will not include a financial or specific performance obligation on, or constitute an admission of liability by, the Indemnified Party.

9. LIABILITY

9.1) Limitation of Liability. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the total liability of Mirakl (and its Affiliates, officers, employees, agents, and subcontractors), for any and all causes of action arising out of or relating to the Agreement, shall be limited to the total amount of Subscription Fees (excluding tax) paid for the applicable Cloud Service associated with the damage during the twelve (12) months prior to the first event out of which the liability arose.

9.2) Excluded Damages. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, in no event shall Mirakl (and its Affiliates, officers, employees, agents, and subcontractors), whether in contract, extra-contractual liability, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, be liable for (i) any special, incidental, exemplary, punitive, consequential, or indirect damages; (ii) loss of profits; (iii) loss of use or corruption of software, data, or information; (iv) loss of data; (v) loss of sales or business; (vi) loss of or damage to goodwill or reputation; or (vii) the cost of replacing the Cloud Services, even if Mirakl has been notified of the possibility of such damages.

9.3) Exclusions. Nothing in the Agreement excludes or limits either Party’s liability resulting from (i) the Parties’ obligations pursuant to Sections 8.1 and 8.2; (ii) gross negligence or willful misconduct; (iii) Customer’s failure to pay any amounts due under the Agreement; or (iv) breaches for which liability cannot be limited by applicable law.

9.4) Liability and Third Parties. Mirakl only makes a contractual commitment to Customer and makes no commitments or guarantees of any kind to any third party under the Agreement. Any access to and use of the Cloud Services by a third party shall be Customer’s exclusive liability.

9.5) Limitation of Time to File Claims. Customer must initiate a cause of action for any claims relating to the Agreement and its subject matter within one (1) year from the date Customer knew, or should have known after reasonable investigation, of the facts giving rise to the claims.

10. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS; RESTRICTIONS

10.1) Cloud Services Intellectual Property. All intellectual property rights in the Cloud Services (including their underlying software), Mirakl Resources, and the Documentation, and all improvements, modifications, adaptations, corrections, enhancements, and/or derivations of all or any part thereof, including any resulting from the operation of the Cloud Services under the Agreement, are and shall remain the exclusive property of Mirakl and/or its licensors.

10.2) Restrictions. Except to the extent that Customer is expressly permitted to and Mirakl is not allowed to restrict it under applicable law, Customer shall not, nor permit or encourage any third party to, directly or indirectly:

- (i) use the Cloud Services, Mirakl Resources, or the Documentation to design, develop, distribute, or market similar, equivalent, or substitute services;
- (ii) adapt, modify, transform, or change the Cloud Services, Mirakl Resources, or the Documentation in any way, for any reason whatsoever, including to correct malfunctions;
- (iii) decompile, reverse engineer, or disassemble all or part of the Cloud Services;
- (iv) transcribe or translate the Cloud Services, Mirakl Resources, or the Documentation into other languages;
- (v) change or circumvent the security measures such as access codes or usernames; and/or

- (vi) sell, transfer, or rent all or part of the Cloud Services, Mirakl Resources, or the Documentation, or right to use them, whether for payment or free of charge, by any process or derivative work, unless otherwise stipulated in the Agreement.

10.3) Feedback. If Customer provides any opinions, suggestions, or recommendations to Mirakl ("Feedback") concerning the Cloud Services, or the functionalities and performance of the Cloud Services (including identifying potential errors and improvements), Customer hereby assigns to Mirakl all right, title, and interest in and to the Feedback, and Mirakl is free to use and incorporate the Feedback, at its sole discretion, without payment or restriction.

11. CONFIDENTIALITY

The Party receiving Confidential Information agrees that, for the duration of the Agreement and five (5) years after its termination or expiration for any cause whatsoever, the Confidential Information provided by the disclosing Party shall:

- (i) be protected and kept strictly confidential and be handled by the receiving Party with the same degree of care it uses to protect its own Confidential Information, but no less than with a reasonable degree of care;
- (ii) be disclosed only to the receiving Party's employees, agents, and subcontractors who need to access it and shall only be used by them to perform the Agreement;
- (iii) not be used in whole or in part by the receiving Party for any purpose other than performing its contractual obligations hereunder. In particular, Confidential Information shall not be sold, transferred, rented, or commercially exploited; and
- (iv) not be copied, reproduced, or duplicated, in whole or in part, except (i) as needed for the receiving Party's performance of its contractual obligations herein; and/or (ii) if expressly approved in writing by the disclosing Party.

The receiving Party shall ensure that its employees, agents, and subcontractors to whom the disclosing Party's Confidential Information is disclosed are bound in writing by confidentiality obligations no less restrictive than those set forth herein.

Each Party shall ensure that its employees, agents, and subcontractors comply with the obligations set out in this section and shall be liable for any disclosure made in breach hereof by them. If Confidential Information is disclosed in breach of this section, the Party who has knowledge of it must immediately notify the other Party in writing.

The confidentiality obligations stipulated in this section shall not apply to Confidential Information that:

- a) is or becomes publicly disclosed through no fault or breach of confidentiality provisions protecting the Confidential Information;
- b) was already known by the receiving Party prior to its disclosure, which can be demonstrated by the existence of documents pre-existing the disclosure;
- c) was lawfully received from a third party without restrictions and not in breach of confidentiality provisions protecting the Confidential Information;
- d) was independently developed by the receiving Party without using and/or relying on any of the disclosing Party's Confidential Information, which can be demonstrated by the existence of written records; and/or
- e) whose use or disclosure has been authorized in writing by the disclosing Party.

In addition, on a strictly confidential basis, each Party may disclose the Confidential Information of the other Party:

- A. for Mirakl: to the Affiliates of Mirakl SAS (parent company of Mirakl); and
- B. for each Party: (I) to its advisers, investors, insurance broker and insurers, statutory auditors, and tax and social security agencies in the event of an audit; (II) when ordered to do so by a court of law; or (III) when such disclosure is necessary to enforce or prove the existence of rights under the Agreement. In the case of Sections 11(B)(I) and (II), the receiving Party will provide reasonable advance notice to the disclosing Party and provide reasonable assistance to limit the scope of disclosure, unless prohibited by applicable laws or regulations.

12. AGGREGATED DATA

Mirakl may use anonymized and aggregated data and information derived from Customer's and its Authorized Users' use of the Cloud Services to (i) improve its products and services (including product features and functionalities, workflows, and user interfaces) and develop new products and services; (ii) maximize resource and support allocation; (iii) develop learning algorithms; and (iv) identify industry trends and developments, indexing, and anonymous benchmarking.

13. GENERAL PROVISIONS

13.1) Relationship of the Parties. Each Party shall be deemed to be an independent contractor. Nothing in the Agreement shall be deemed to create a partnership, joint venture, or agency relationship between the Parties. In addition, each Party shall retain its status as an employer with respect to its own personnel.

13.2) No Third-Party Beneficiaries. The Agreement is concluded for the sole benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns and nothing herein, express, or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other person or entity any legal or equitable right, benefit, or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of the Agreement.

13.3 Non-Solicitation of Personnel. Unless Mirakl has given its prior, written consent, Customer shall refrain from directly or indirectly inducing, or attempting to induce, Mirakl's employees to terminate or to breach their employment contract with Mirakl. This non-solicitation obligation shall remain valid during the Term of the Agreement and for a period of twelve (12) months after the expiration or termination of the Agreement for any cause whatsoever. If Customer breaches this obligation, Customer shall compensate Mirakl by paying an amount equal to two (2) times the gross salary received by the employee who was hired during the twelve (12) months preceding such employee's departure.

13.4) Sub-Contracting. Mirakl may subcontract all or part of its obligations under the Agreement to any subcontractor (e.g., cloud hosting providers), provided that Mirakl remains responsible to Customer for any breach of the Agreement by its subcontractors.

13.5) Assignment. Neither Party may assign the Agreement without the other Party's prior written consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Mirakl may assign the Agreement without Customer's consent to an Affiliate or in connection with a merger, acquisition, or sale of all or substantially all of its assets. In any event, Customer may not assign the Agreement to a company that competes with Mirakl.

13.6) Entire Agreement. The Agreement constitutes the full and exclusive understanding between the Parties with respect to its subject matter and supersedes and replaces all prior declarations, negotiations, undertakings, verbal or written communications, acceptances, agreements, and understandings, having the same subject matter as the Agreement, including any confidentiality agreement signed by the Parties prior to the Agreement.

Any modification to the Agreement must be made in writing and signed by an authorized representative of each Party.

No other general or specific terms and conditions communicated by either Party may be enforced against the other Party, including those contained in Customer's purchase orders or any other documentation submitted by or on behalf of Customer.

13.7) Notifications. Any business notifications in connection with the Agreement may be sent by email. Any legal notices sent pursuant to the Agreement must be made in writing and (i) delivered by hand, or (ii) sent by registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt to the address indicated in the Agreement, or to any other address communicated by either Party for this purpose. A notification sent by registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt shall be deemed to be received on the date it was delivered. However, Mirakl's notifications regarding the Cloud Services' operation may be made electronically.

GENERAL TERMS OF USE FOR MIRAKL CLOUD SERVICES

13.8) Force Majeure. Neither Party will be liable for any delay in performing or failing to perform its obligations under the Agreement (except for payment obligations) due to any cause or event outside its reasonable control, including acts of God, civil or military authority, acts of war, accidents, third-party communication or computer failures, epidemic or pandemic, natural disasters or catastrophes, strikes or other work stoppages, interruption or failure of utility services, or any other cause beyond the reasonable control of the affected Party.

13.9) Miscellaneous.

13.9.1) Non-Waiver. A delay or failure by either Party to assert any of its rights under the Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of any such right and shall not release the other Party from its obligations under the Agreement.

13.9.2) Severability. If one or more of the provisions of the Agreement is or becomes null, void, illegal, unenforceable, or inapplicable in any manner whatsoever, the validity, legality, or enforceability of the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall not be affected or impaired in any way. However, in such case, the Parties agree to consult each other and to make every effort to include a new clause in the Agreement that restores the intent of the Parties as expressed in the initial clause, in compliance with applicable law.

13.10) Electronic Records and Signature. The Parties agree that the records stored by Mirakl (e.g., transaction logs) as well as the electronic communications between the Parties shall be admissible as evidence between the Parties in accordance with applicable law. For this purpose, it is expressly agreed that all technical information concerning Customer and any electronic communications of any nature whatsoever with Customer (including, but not limited to, email, internal messages from the Cloud Services, etc.) may be stored and archived by Mirakl for evidentiary purposes. Both Parties agree that their signature can be established in electronic form and sent by facsimile, scanned copy sent via e-mail, or electronic signature by using means implemented by Mirakl (e.g., Adobe Sign or DocuSign) and that, when in electronic form, the Agreement shall be deemed original.

13.11) Governing Law and Jurisdiction.

Each Party agrees to the applicable governing law as defined in the table below without regard to choice or conflicts of law principles, in particular the application of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods, all national laws intended to apply this Convention and any other applicable conflict of law rules, for any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with the Agreement. If the Parties fail to reach an amicable agreement for any dispute (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising between them concerning the interpretation or performance of the Agreement, its formation, conclusion, or termination, each Party agrees to the exclusive jurisdiction of the applicable courts as defined in the table below, notwithstanding multiple defendants or introduction of third parties, even for protective, summary, or motion proceedings.
